Dear Hugh:

Many thanks indeed for your kind invitation to join the Editorial Board of Studies in Intelligence -- a much appreciated invitation to which I should have responded long ago. I will be delighted to do what I can and look forward to a renewed association with you. I will block out the period 18-20 April on my calendar and await further specific details from

Dear George,

The other Board members and I want to invite you to join the Editorial Board of our quarterly, Studies in Intelligence, to help us to revive and improve the publication. I can add that this invitation is extended with the enthusiastic approval of the Director.

As you probably know, the Board retires for a couple of days once every three months to consider and discuss articles proposed for publication. Our next meeting is set for 18-20 April, and Pat Conger will provide you with more specifics on time, place, and agenda as that date approaches.

Sincerely,

Chairman, Editorial Board
Studies in Intelligence
